

With an opening ceremony that would make Danny Boyle proud (- Tapper, a lighter, chariots of fire and an 'Olympic' torch) and with Tapper, our Olympic official ready with the loud hailer and clip board, the BAC Olympic were ready to start, and what a start it was with the Sack Race seeing people hop, jump, bounce, stumble and yell was a sight to be seen, especially half man, half kangaroo Bobby (Ceri's hubby) who stormed his qualifying round and the final! Efficiently we moved on to the next event, this being the world famous egg 'n spoon race, this was no problem for Rich (Part of the Clapp gang) who won by miles, however speed, balance and co-ordination proved somewhat difficult for the rest of us! A special (needs) mention must go to Beezy who came second, third place goes to everyone else as there was a scramble (get it?) over the line!

The 3 legged race proved a hell of a task for some (ok just me and Tinny) but no problem for Sarah Clapp and her best mate who flew (I think her mate was dragged) down the 50m track, Liz & Steve and Ceri & Bobby followed closely behind. Me and Tinny are still attempting to finish.

Sarah Clapp winning became a bit of a theme thereafter, with her winning the Javelin, the skipping rope race, the mash up race, where she pipped Tinny at the post, which as you can imagine ended in a stewards enquiry and a drug test (she was clean). I can confirm that the next time we hold something like this will be when Sarah Clapp is busy!!

Ceri showed off her bouncing skills by winning the space hopper race, which I have to mention I was favourite to win, but I had a space hopper malfunction and came in after Liz at a respectable 3rd! Liz & I now think we should have space hoppers at training!

Bish excelled in the discus, which left many of us questioning 'her', she was later banned for cheating from the shot put, in fact the shot put was full of controversy I had a pitch invasion of rugby players and a ballerina! Liz & Steve proved what an awesome team they make by winning both the double sack race and the wheelbarrow race (we think they had been training at home for the last 4 years?). The 4x50m relay was won by Cheryl, Bish, Beezy & hopefullyfingerscrossedletshopeso our new goalkeeper Becky!!

Then came the tug of war, best of 3, 1st round Team 1 won fair and square, then came the 2nd round, Tapper say's 3...2....1...pull, we both pull and SNAP the rope breaks, and we all fell at the same time, good luck explaining that one Beezy!!

PULLLL!!!!

Not that hard!!!!

Did anyone win the tug of war? Frayed knot!!!! © Coxy
