INJURY OF THE MONTH

This months injury of the month goes out to Lisa Browne who got smashed in the face with the ball at the Yate v BAC2 match. At time of writing she had blood in her synisises and a chipped cheek bone, but despite this and again proving that hockey girls are really that tough, she played on....all of us at BAC HQ are wishing you a speedy recovery.

Look at those dimples

Cheeky!!!

WELCOME TO BAC

Another new player has joined the BAC fold, it is Lucy Gardener she is joining us from Frome after a great piece of 'during a match' BAC PR from yours truly!! Welcome to BAC Lucy!

SURPRISE MOTM PRIZE OF THE MONTH

The SURPRISE man of the match prize of the month, goes to Woolly Pully, who won man of the match after showing some serious defending skills against Cirencester. Her reward? A little shock when she opened her 'plain old can of nuts' prize!!

Caption competition anyone.....*stiffles giggle*

BAC IN THE NEWS

Eagle eyed Chris Verall spotted the mighty reds making the news. The first teams THRASHING of Westberries made front page* of the Bristol Evening Post.

SUBLIMINAL BAC MESSAGING

Have you all wondered why/how we are getting more and more new players as the season moves on?? Well, we at BAC HQ have found a way of secretly marketing BAC. We are subliminally putting BAC into peoples minds at there places of work and making them want to join the mighty reds.

Our Soph found this whilst marking a science paper:
